Christine, I have received a reply. As I predicted they are passing the buck.

Why are Councillors Not allowed to comment when elections are imminent, surely that is the time to step up.

You can use this one also if you wish.

Regards Jude

Good Morning Jude,

I refer to and acknowledge your email received earlier today. I can advise it has been forwarded to all Councillors for their information. I also wish to advise with the upcoming local government elections, Councillors are currently in caretaker mode, which prohibits them from commenting as Councillors.

We understand some residents are concerned about noise due to increased aircraft activity at Mildura Airport. While Council is not responsible for managing or monitoring air traffic noise, we do take these matters seriously and acknowledge the possible inconvenience and distress it may cause.

We are working closely with Mildura Airport to ensure they are aware of these issues and will forward your concerns to them directly. We also encourage you to make contact with them or any of the following:

- Airservices Australia manages enquiries complaints about aircraft noise and operations. You can contact them using their online form.
- The Civil Aviation Safety Authority manages concerns about low flying aircraft and safety. You can call them on 131 747 or using their online form.
- Mildura Airport can be called on (03) 5055 0500 or using their online form.

Regards,

Helen Jones
